PRESS RELEASE: SEPTEMBER 23 2021

The Sabine Parish School Board is pleased to announce Mr. Shane Wright as the next Superintendent of Schools in Sabine Parish. Current Superintendent, Dr. Sara P. Ebarb will retire effective December 31, 2021.

Mr. Wright is a product of Sabine Parish Schools, graduating from Many High School, then earning his Bachelor and Master Plus 30 Degrees from Northwestern State University. He currently holds a valid for life Louisiana Teaching Certificate.

Mr. Wright has over 20 years of experience starting out as a Classroom Teacher and Coach at Many High School, then becoming Assistant Principal at Many Jr. High School, and then progressed to the Central Office as Director of Administrative Services which includes oversight of Transportation, District Athletics, and Human Resources.

Mr. Wright is married to Dr. Sarah Rankin Wright and they have a daughter, Alaina, who is a senior at Many High School.

Board President, Terrell Snelling, commented saying, "In moving forward as a school district, we are proud that Mr. Shane Wright will lead the way. He has served the district well for years, has a positive outlook, and has gleaned much support from the community. On behalf of the School Board, we welcome Mr. Wright and what he will bring to the table."

Mr. Wright is looking forward to serving as the District's new Superintendent and is committed to working with staff and teachers to improve the educational opportunities and outcomes for the students of Sabine Parish.
